Delegates Due Here Tomorrow

Oregon Federation Of Women's Clubs Brings A Hundred Mem- bers From Far And Near.

Nearly one hundred delegates to the annual meeting of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs will arrive in Astoria tomorrow night, and on the following morning the business of the convention will be at once taken up. In view of the large number of delegates from all over the state that will attend, it is hoped that the merchants will make a display of the national colors, which are also the colors of the federation.

As already stated in The Astorian, the public will be admitted to the business

HOSE TEAM GAVE MERRY DANCE

The hose team gave a successful dance at Hanthorn's hall last night.
There was a large attendance and a good sum was realized, to defray the cost of the suits. The hall was crowded to its fullest capacity, the music was first-class, and the dancers became exhausted with good time. Manager Brown, on behalf of the members of the team, desires to thank the public for the hearty assistance and cordial patronage.

TUMBLES OVERBOARD WITH GIRL IN HIS ARMS

McDermott, Trying to Save Miss Haslam, Smashes His Nose and Falls With Her Into the River.

Jumping forward to save Miss Haslam from falling on the slippery deck of his launch at Eureka yesterday afternoon Harry McDermott fell himself and struck the edge of the dock, smashing his nose into pulp and falling overboard with the girl in his arms. The blow would have been enough to stun most men, but McDermott made a gallant struggle and brought Miss Haslam safely to the shore.

Both McDermott and Miss Haslam belong to Cathlamet, and went up to Eureka in the launch. The deck was slippery from fish, and when Miss Haslam attempted to go ashore she slipped. McDermott sprang to save her, but slipped in his turn, and, still holding Miss Haslam, fell against the edge of the dock, striking squarely on his nose, the bones being completely crushed. The tumble into the water followed, but was insufficient to put the plucky boatman out of business, for he safely brought his charge to shore.

BOCK AND SMITH HELD FOR TRIAL

Hearing in the Justice Court Develops Strong Testimony for State Against Perjurors.

Under bonds of $5000 each Bock and Smith are held for trial in the circuit court, and tomorrow they will be indicted, so that there is a possibility of the case coming to trial during the present term.

At the hearing in the justice court yesterday, C. W. Perkins and E. W.
Lues of Lafayette, California, were the witnesses for the state. Their testimony was to the effect that Bock's true name was Lane, and that he had been lame for ten years or more. Lues testified that Bock, or Lane, had at one time exhibited the knee to him and remarked that he could fool any doctor with it. Bock had also told Lues, the testimony went, that he had received $1200 in 1890 from a merchant for the same injury, and a little later $300 from a woman. From the testimony it seems that Lafayette is a great place for perjury, cattle stealing and other pleasant pursuits in all of which Bock took a part to the personal knowledge of Lues.

Sheriff Linville is in possession of information from Seattle to the effect that Bock succeeded in grafting that city for $2000 on account of his money-making knecap.

RELIEF FUND STILL GROWS.

Nearly $150 Added to the Former Total Yesterday.

The Heppner relief fund was augmented by $57 yesterday, and in addition to this the A. O. U. W. subscribed $50 at their meeting last night.

In addition to the lodges already mentioned in The Astorian the following have contributed: Sons of Herman, $25; Salmon Workers' Union, $10; United Artisans, $10.

The estimate of $2000 for the total relief fund will probably be exceeded, when the benefit performance in the opera house is reckoned and the contributions from some societies that have signified their intention of joining in the fund.

MARINE ITEMS.

The steamer Elmore arrived in from Tillamook yesterday.

The lighthouse tender Manzanita left out for Tillamook yesterday.

The barkentine John Palmer arrived in yesterday to load lumber at Vancouver.

The steamer Homer will probably leave out for Alaska today.

The steamer Elmore will leave Astoria for Tillamook bay points on Wednesday, June 24 at 3 o'clock A. M.

HOSE TEAM FOR REGATTA.

A hose team was organized in this city Tuesday night with L. Ruconich as manager and Charles W. Pope as captain, says the Clackamas County Record. The team will be made up of the sprinters from the four companies of the city and will go to Astoria to enter in the races there during the regatta. The probable date is August 4 and up to that time the team will practice diligently.

A proposition has been received from Chief Ruconich to enter the hose team in the Portland races on the Fourth of July but this will not be accepted as there will be races here on the Fourth.
Each company will enter a team, as was done last year.

nished or unfurnished, gas and electric lights, water in kitchen. Over Peterson & Brown's shoe store.

St. Louis To See Our Fish

Moving Pictures Will Show Co- lumbia River Fishermen And Canneries In Full Blast.

Thousands of visitors to the St. Louis exhibition will see Astoria fishermen taking salmon from the river, and will see the fish go through all the processes in the cannery until the completed can is ready for the consumer.

The United States Fish commission has in hand the matter of taking mu-scope pictures of the various stages in the production of canned Columbia river salmon, and Miles Brothers, the well-known experts of San Francisco, are ready to be on hand with their cameras at forty-eight hours notice.
As the moving pictures are to be taken when the run is at its height, Master Fish Waraden Van Dusen has been requested to telegraph the operators in time to permit of their securing the best results.

The scenes to be thrown on the screens at St. Louis will include fishermen at work, gaffing the traps, and all the processes in the cannery. Owing to the fact that the question of light and shade is so important, the selection of the cannery scenes will be left to the photographer. Consequently it is probable that different establishments will be chosen for different processes, as one cannery might have the best light showing the cutters at work, and another the best for the process of filling the cans. Another scene that will be especially sought for is that of a large heap of fish, and this, of course, will have to be taken where-ever it can be found.

The work will prove one of the best advertising mediums for the Columbia river packing industry that could have been devised. People will be able to see for themselves the cleanly manner in which the fish are handled, and the intrinsic interest of the views will hold their attention closely.

MEETING OF A. O. U. W.

At last night's meeting of Seaside lodge No. 12, A. O. U. W., F. D. Winton was elected as delegate to the grand lodge, vice C. W. Karlson, resigned, and Thomas E. Parker was elected alternate, vice Nat. Jones, resigned. Thos. Dealy was appointed by the lodge to have charge of the remains of the late James McCarthy, which are to be interred in Portland, Monday, June 22. Mr. Dealy will be assisted by the following pall bearers, who will also go to Portland: T. J.
Kelly, William Kelly, Patrick Shea, J.
W. Durah and John Leahy.

The sum of $50 was voted to be contributed to the Heppner sufferers, the amount to be sent through the relief committee. Also $10 was given to the Kansas people rendered destitute by the recent floods.

TAKES CHARGE OF CHLOPECK'S

W. T. Chutter arrived at Seattle last week to take charge of the Chlopeck fish company, recently placed in the hands of a receiver, says the Seattle Trade Register. Mr. Chutter is manager at Astoria of the salmon cannery of the A. Booth Co., of Chicago, which concern was largely interested in the Chlopeck fish company. Mr. Chutter may make his home in Seattle.

LOW MASS WILL BE SAID.

The body of James McCarthy, late member of Seaside lodge No. 12, A.
O. U. W., will be removed to St.
Mary's church where low mass will be said over the remains at 6 o'clock Monday morning, June 22.

EXCURSION TO OLNEY.

The Teamsters' union will give a grand excursion to Olney today, June 21. The steamer Vanguard has been chartered to make the trip and accommodation will be furnished for all who desire to go. Steamer leaves Flavel's wharf 8:30 A. M. Adults, round trip, 50c; children, 25c. Tickets for latter will be sold only on morning of excursion.
